During lunch service September 2, 2014, in the Valleyview dining room residents shared the following comments with the Inspector:

Resident #01- stated “the soup could be hotter”

Resident #02- stated the vegetables are cold most of the time, 2-3 times/week.

The Resident's Food Council minutes, March 24, 2014, revealed cold food was an area of concern as part of the home's Resident Satisfaction Survey for 2014.

The home's Food Service Temperature Records policy, January 2013, states the following:

1. Food temperatures are taken and recorded on the Main Kitchen Temperature Form when placed in hot wagon for transportation to dining room serveries.
2. Temperatures are taken again before serving and recorded on servery Food Temperature Form.

In an interview the Dietary Staff members confirmed that for the period July 1-31, 2014, 100% of the food temperatures for meals had not been recorded in the Main Kitchen before being sent to the dining rooms.

Record review of the Food Temperature Records in Valleyview dining room from July 1-31, 2014, revealed for 43 meals or 46.2 % of the time food temperatures were not taken prior to meal service.

During an interview with the Food Services Manager she confirmed her expectation that the policy for the Recording of Food Temperatures in Main Kitchen and the home's dining rooms be followed. [s. 8. (1) (b)]
