2. The clinical record for one resident confirms they were toileted by two staff 45 minutes before shift change.
3. On commencement of the new shift, a fire drill was conducted.
4. The staff assigned to check resident rooms and washrooms during the fire drill, confirmed to the Acting Administrator that they did not enter this resident's washroom during the drill as they didn't see a wheelchair in the room and assumed the resident was not present.
5. The resident rang the nurse call bell for staff assistance off the toilet 1.5 hours after being placed on the toilet.
6. Two management personnel and one staff confirmed the home protocol related to communication is to report to the oncoming shift that a resident remains on the toilet.
7. Two management personnel and one staff confirmed the home policy related to fire drills was not followed and staff did not check the residents washroom during the drill as required. [s. 8. (1) (a), s. 8. (1) (b)]
