(b) the resident's care needs change or care set out in the plan is no longer necessary;
or

The licensee has failed to ensure that a resident's care plan was reviewed and revised when the resident's care needs changed.

A resident's care needs changed and new interventions were put in place to meet the resident's changed care needs; however, the resident's care plan was not updated with the new interventions. The Restorative Program Lead agreed that the care plan should have been updated with the new interventions and proceeded to update the resident's care plan with the current care interventions.
