Non-compliance with requirements under the Long-Term Care Homes Act, 2007 (LTCHA) was found. (a requirement under the LTCHA includes the requirements contained in the items listed in the definition of "requirement under this Act" in subsection 2(1) of the LTCHA).

Le non-respect des exigences de la Loi de 2007 sur les foyers de soins de longue durée (LFSLD) a été constaté. (une exigence de la loi comprend les exigences qui font partie des éléments énumérés dans la définition de « exigence prévue par la présente loi », au paragraphe 2(1) de la LFSLD.

The following constitutes written notification of non-compliance under paragraph 1 of section 152 of the LTCHA.

Ce qui suit constitue un avis écrit de non-respect aux termes du paragraphe 1 de l'article 152 de la LFSLD.

WN #1: The Licensee has failed to comply with LTCHA, 2007 S.O. 2007, c.8, s. 5.
Every licensee of a long-term care home shall ensure that the home is a safe and secure environment for its residents. 2007, c. 8, s. 5.

1. The licensee has failed to ensure that the home is a safe and secure environment for its residents.

Review of a Ministry of Health and Long-Term Care document revealed that on an identified date in 2015, resident #001 eloped from the home. A search of the unit and grounds was conducted. The resident was found approximately 2 to 3 kilometres from the home and was returned safely.

Review of resident #001's plan of care revealed that the resident had been using a device related to security. Further, the plan of care revealed the resident was allowed a certain range of freedom of movement and his/her whereabouts were to be monitored hourly.

Interview with the RCM and the DOC confirmed that the resident eloped. The resident eloped despite the use of a security device.

Interview with the administrator confirmed the incident was investigated and that the resident eloped. [s. 5.]

1. The licensee has failed to ensure that any actions taken with respect to a resident under a program, including assessments, reassessments, interventions and the resident's responses to interventions are documented.

Review of a Ministry of Health and Long-Term Care document revealed that on an identified date in September 2015, during the night, resident #001 was heard calling out from his/her room. When the resident assistant went to investigate, he/she found resident #002 in resident #001's room near resident #001 and his/her clothing were not all on. Resident #002 was redirected back to his/her room and resident #001 was assessed by the registered staff. Additional monitoring was initiated on both residents.

Interview with the Charge Nurse revealed that following the incident, the residents were both placed on one to one monitoring to ensure the safety of resident #001.

Review of a specified documentation form for resident #001 revealed the form was not filled in on identified dates in October 2015.

As well, review of a specified documentation form for resident #002 revealed the form was not filled in on the same identified dates in October 2015.

Interview with the DOC confirmed that specified documentation forms for these residents were not completed and that the required monitoring interventions were not documented. [s. 30. (2)]
