WN #1: The Licensee has failed to comply with O.Reg 79/10, s. 75. Nutrition manager

Specifically failed to comply with the following:

s. 75. (2) A person hired as a nutrition manager after the coming into force of this section must be an active member of the Canadian Society of Nutrition Management or a registered dietitian. O. Reg. 79/10, s. 75 (2).

Findings/Faits saillants :

1. The licensee has failed to ensure that the Nutrition Manager was an active member of the Canadian Society of Nutrition Management (CSNM) or a Registered Dietitian (RD).

A complaint was submitted to the Director which outlined concerns that the home's Dietary Manager (DM) may not have had the qualifications required for the position.

During an interview with the DM, they verified they were employed and working as the home's Dietary Manager.

A letter from the CSNM was reviewed with the DM who confirmed they were a student member of the CSNM.

During an interview with the CSNM's Office Manager, they described that an active member must have completed the CSNM's Food Services and Nutrition Management Program. After which the applicant would have applied and paid for their membership to the CSNM within two years of Program completion. The Office Manager indicated that student members were not active members of the CSNM.

A review of the home's policy titled "Dietary Manager" indicated it was mandatory that the DM was a member of the CSNM or a RD.

During an interview with the Administrator, they stated "yes" when asked if it was the expectation of the home that the DM was an active member of the CSNM. [s. 75. (2)]

During an interview with the Administrator, they stated "yes" when asked if it was the expectation of the home that the DM was an active member of the CSNM.

The severity of this issue was determined to be a level two, as there was minimal harm or potential for actual harm to the residents of the home. The scope of the issue was a level three or widespread, as the Nutrition Manager was responsible for overseeing the Nutrition and Hydration Program. The home had a level two compliance history, with one or more unrelated non-compliances in the last 36 months. (609)
