Resident #001 was admitted to the home with several diagnosis and requires total assistance for continence care.

On a specific date in 2019, Program Manager of Personal Care (PMPC) #100 walked on a specific unit around 1530 hours. The PMPC noticed as they were coming out of the elevator, that resident #001 had a bowel movement and stool were observed on the hand and on the clothing of the resident. At that time, the PMPC requested that resident #001 be changed immediately.

Few days later, the PMPC #100 reviewed the camera footage of that specific date to review the care that was provided to resident #001 during the day shift. It was observed that resident #001 was not returned to the bedroom to have the incontinent product changed during a specific period on the day shift.
