A resident indicated that most of the staff had treated them with respect and dignity, and that there was a concern in the past, which had been resolved.

A Registered Nurse (RN) spoke with the resident who voiced a concern regarding their care. It was determined that a Personal Support Worker (PSW) did not respect the resident's rights, by their tone of voice, the way they spoke to the resident and not making it feel like the resident's home.

2. The licensee has failed to ensure that a resident had their right to have their participation in decision-making respected.

A Critical Incident (CI) report was submitted to the Director related to an allegation of staff to resident abuse.

A PSW indicated there was an incident involving staff and a resident, and it was described that the resident was agitated after the interaction. Discipline letters were issued to two PSWs indicating that their actions did not comply with the Resident's Bill of Rights.

Sources: a CI report, the home's internal investigation notes, discipline letters; Interviews with a PSW, a Co-DOC, the Administrator and other staff; A resident's care records including: progress notes, care plan and assessments; "Resident Rights, Care and Services- General Management- Residents Bill of Rights" policy dated 2015-07-21.

An order was made by taking the following factors into account:

Severity: There was minimal harm identified. One resident was identified as becoming agitated after the incident; One resident voiced their concerns to staff, however, the concerns were addressed by the home.

Scope: This non-compliance was a pattern as it related to the rights of two out of three residents reviewed during the inspection.

Compliance History: In the last 36 months, the licensee was found to be non-compliant with the LTCHA s. 3 (1) and one Written Notification (WN) and one Voluntary Plan of Correction (VPC) was issued to the home. (679)
