1. The licensee failed to ensure that following a review of the assessments and information provided, that they approved the applicant's admission to the home unless, the home lacked the physical facilities necessary to meet the applicant's care requirements or the staff of the home lacked the nursing expertise necessary to meet the applicant's care requirements.

Placement Services, of the HNHB LHIN, received a letter from the DOC of the home, on a specified date in January 2019, related to application for admission for applicant #001.

The letter identified that the home was withholding approval of the application as the home did not have the necessary resources to meet the applicants needs and that this decision was based on the information provided on the LHIN application forms.

On a specified date in January 2019, a discussion was held with the DOC regarding the applicant and the reason that their application was denied.

On a specified date in January 2019, management, from the long-term care home, took action to obtained additional information about the applicant, in an effort to assess care needs.

On a specified date in January 2019, the DOC confirmed that the home did not lack the physical facilities nor that their staff lacked the nursing expertise necessary to meet the applicant's care requirements.

The DOC acknowledged that the home did not have acceptable grounds to withhold approval for the applicants admission to the home. [s. 44. (7)]
