1. A previous WN including a CO: CO_001 2012_099188_0001(188) have been issued under O.Reg. 79/10 s.55 (a)

2. The licensee has failed to ensure that procedures and interventions are developed and implemented to assist residents and staff who are at risk of harm or who are harmed as a result of a resident's behaviours, including responsive behaviours, and to minimize the risk of altercations and potentially harmful interactions between and among residents.

Inspector observed on May 01, 2012 at 1505hr (during shift report) on [REDACTED] unit, that resident 0006 was observed moving down the hallway in a wheelchair and grabbing out to residents and staff as they walked nearby. Resident 0007 was walking past resident 0006 in the hallway when resident 0006 grabbed resident's 0007 coat sleeve. Resident 0007 continued to move down the hallway while resident 0006 continued to firmly hold resident's 0007 arm. Resident 0007 appeared to be frustrated by the circumstance telling resident 0006 in a harsh voice to let go, at which point resident 0007 was able to be released using extra force. Resident 0007 was overheard by the inspector to say to resident 0006 in a firm tone "don't ever do that again!"

PSW staff member S102 was interviewed by the inspector about resident's 0006 behaviour on May 01, 2012 which occurred around the time that the shift report was occurring. S102 reported to the inspector "what are we supposed to do when the report is going on?"

RPN staff member S100 approached the inspector at the nursing desk on [REDACTED] on May 01, 2012 and indicated an uncertainty of how to handle the behaviours of residents such as resident 0006. During an interview with the Director of Care (S101), it was reported to the inspector that a shift report which includes information about residents with behaviours that require monitoring is to be printed at the end of every shift and placed in the shift report binder for easy access for staff. Upon review of the shift report binder with staff member S101 over the previous week, several shift reports that were saved in the computer were not printed and placed in the binder as per the required procedure stated by S101.[O.Reg.79/10,s.55(a)] (163)

WN #1: The Licensee has failed to comply with O.Reg 79/10, s. 55. Behaviours and altercations

Every licensee of a long-term care home shall ensure that,

- (a) procedures and interventions are developed and implemented to assist residents and staff who are at risk of harm or who are harmed as a result of a resident's behaviours, including responsive behaviours, and to minimize the risk of altercations and potentially harmful interactions between and among residents; and
(b) all direct care staff are advised at the beginning of every shift of each resident whose behaviours, including responsive behaviours, require heightened monitoring because those behaviours pose a potential risk to the resident or others. O. Reg. 79/10, s. 55.

Findings/Faits saillants :

1. The licensee has failed to ensure that procedures and interventions are developed and implemented to assist residents and staff who are at risk of harm or who are harmed as a result of a resident's behaviours, including responsive behaviours, and to minimize the risk of altercations and potentially harmful interactions between and among residents.

Inspector observed on May 01, 2012 at 1505hr (during shift report) on [REDACTED] unit, that resident 0006 was observed moving down the hallway in a wheelchair and grabbing out to residents and staff as they walked nearby. Resident 0007 was walking past resident 0006 in the hallway when resident 0006 grabbed resident's 0007 coat sleeve. Resident 0007 continued to move down the hallway while resident 0006 continued to hold firmly to resident's 0007 arm. Resident 0007 appeared to be frustrated by the circumstance telling resident 0006 in a harsh voice to let go at, which point resident 0007 was able to be released using extra force. Resident 0007 was overheard by the inspector to say to resident 0006 in a firm tone "don't ever do that again!"

PSW staff member S102 was interviewed by the inspector about resident's 0006 behaviour on May 01, 2012 which occurred around the time that the shift report was occurring. S102 reported to the inspector "what are we supposed to do when the report is going on?"

RPN staff member S100 approached the inspector at the nursing desk on [REDACTED] on May 01, 2012 and indicated an uncertainty of how to handle the behaviours of residents such as resident 0006.

During an interview with the Director of Care (S101), it was reported to the inspector that a shift report which includes information about residents with behaviours that require monitoring is to be printed at the end of every shift and placed in the shift report binder for easy access for staff. Upon review of the shift report binder with staff member S101 over the previous week, several shift reports that were saved in the computer were not printed and placed in the binder as per the required procedure stated by S101.[O.Reg.79/10,s.55(a)]
